Presentation Topics

Can we Talk? Tackling Tough Topics with Clients, Co-workers and More (CLE approved)

Problems only fester and multiply when they go unaddressed. Most of us still resist difficult conversations. In this engaging, informative program, you will learn:

- Why we get stressed about discussing difficult subjects
- How to de-stress and prepare for dialogue
- Proven methods for moving conversations forward

Cracking the Confidence Code – What It Is and How to Have It (CLE approved)

Statistically, women make less money than their male counterparts. They hold fewer managing partner and general counsel positions, and even leave their profession at greater rates. This is a popular keynote for professional groups. In this video-rich and eye-opening program, you will learn:

- Why women often have less confidence than their male counterparts
- How to project confidence and be bolder
- Practical steps to build self-confidence immediately

How to Get the Business You Want Starting Now

As professionals, we respond to the urgent and often fail to set ourselves up for success. In this program, you will learn:

- How SMART goals achieve results
- Time management strategies
- Business development tips
